

Committee on Imperialism Studies
[New York, NY]

1928

COMMITTEE ON IMPERIALISM STUDIES

Room 410 - 70 Fifth Avenue,
New York City.

June 30, 1928.

Mr. Sydney P. Noe,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Noe:

May we call your attention to the reliable and lucid studies of contemporary American imperialism just published by the Vanguard Press: "Our Cuban Colony", by Leland H. Jenks; "The Bankers in Bolivia", by Margaret Alexander Marsh; and "The Americans in Santo Domingo", by M. M. Knight. We have examined these books and believe that you will find them authoritative and informing.

A considerable number of copies of these studies are available for free distribution to students of history and international relations, and to members of organizations interested in the furthering of international justice and peace. If you feel that these books would be useful to you, will you so inform Miss Anna Marnitz, Secretary, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York City. She will see that copies are sent to you.

Sincerely yours,

J. FRED RIPPY,
Professor of Hispanic
American History,
Duke University.

CHARLES WILSON HACKETT,
Professor of Latin American History, University of Texas.

ISAAC J. COX,
Professor of History,
Northwestern University.

KIRBY PAGE,
Chairman of Fellowship for a Christian Social Order.

OSWALD GARRISON VILLARD,
Editor of "The Nation"
New York.

HARRY ELMER BARNES,
Professor of Historical Sociology, Smith College.

July 2nd, 1928

Miss Anna Marnitz- Secretary,
Committee on Imperialism Studies,
Room 410- 70 Fifth Ave., N.Y.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of June 30th referring me to you for certain volumes which are offered for free distribution by the Committee on Imperialism Studies, is at hand. I believe the volume " The Bankers in Bolivia " by Marsh, might have some value for our library. May I therefore ask you to send us a copy.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.